CIO Transit Workers Vote Against Merger

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (P-The big CIO Transport Workers Union today spurned present proposals for a CIO-AFL merger.

Amid impassioned oratory, the national convention of the 170,000member union voted overwhelmingly against a resolution which would have given its flat endorsement to the plan.

"The AFL stabbed us in the back." TWU President Michael Quill declared at one point, "Do we want to go back?" "No!" the delegates roared

Although several speakers voiced approval of labor unity in principle, they objected to any merger plan without special guarantees

Quill said present proposals for a merger of the CIO and AFL contain no assurances against labor racial discrimination, "raiding and racketeering.

The convention voted 392-18 against endorsement. It was the first action by a major union on the merger proposals agreed to at a recent meetng of CIO and AFL officials in

Besides assailing the merger pian and throwing barbs at the AFL, Quill berated CIO President Walter Reuther, a leader in the movement for a united labor organization

Quill said Reuther "is trying to run this convention by remote control from Detroit, and I'll be damned if we'll let him. In a reply released here Reuther

"May the Lord forgive brother Quill for he knows not what he Reuther said the merger plan offers "a sound, honorable and principle basis for labor unity" if labor leaders will act for "the paramount good of the whole labor movement and the welfare of millions of rank-and-file mem-

He said he had urged Quill to save his views until the CIO Excutive Board meets in Washington Feb. 24 to consider the plan.

Quill told the TWU delegates he had a "secret paper" showing that the CIO-AFL conferees had cut out of the merger plans terms forbidding raiding, and to prevent corrupt activities by individual

He also attacked the AFL for alleged racial discrimination. .TWU Secretary-Treasurer Gustav Faber, who sponsored the resolution supporting the merger, said that regardless of the outcome at the convention, he foresaw unity ahead for all labor union

What Pennsylvania has gained in this field over the past 20 years, has been won partly by sheer chance, partly through the efforts of the resort and allied industries and partly from the word-of-mouth reports on the unparalleled resort and travel facilities of the Commonwealth.

The time has come to do an adult-mansized job in this field. Rep. Yetters' bill is the answer to the current adolescent approach toward winning a richer crop of tourist and vacation dollars for Pennsyl-

Democrats To Attack Ike Highway Financing Plans

Democratic leaders of Congress category. are sharpening their pruning knives for President Eisenhower's multi-billion dollar highway pro-

They are strongly against his method of financing the long-

The Democrats are in full agreement with the President on his basic proposal to build new road systems throughout the country. But they differ sharply with him on doing this by largescale bond issues.

The Democrats want it done on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Their militant drive to rewrite the President's program along that line is being spearheaded by Speaker Sam Rayburn, Tex., Senator Harry Byrd, Va., chairman of the Finance Committee and a life-long champion of pay-as-you go financing, and Senator Albert Gore, Tenn., chairman of the Public Works Subcommittee which will handle the legislation in his chamber.

Working closely with them are Acting Senate Democratic Leader Earle Clements, Ky., House Democratic Lealer John McCormack, Mass., and Representative of WPA program." Howard Smith, Va., Chairman of the powerful House Rules Committee

Main features of the Democrats highway program, as drafed by Speaker Rayburn, Senator Gore and other party chiefs at a series

$1,600,000,000 to be appropriated annually from the Treasury as federal aid to States, which must match them dollar for dollar, with one exception when the evident in these states in the government will put up two dollars to one from the states.

Of this total annual federal ap propriation: $500,000,000 to be earmarked for primary roads; $325,000,000 for secondary roads; $275,000,000 for urban highways. and $500,000,000 for interstate systems. The last item is the exception on which state aid would be on a two for one basis; on all other roads, the states would have to match each dollar they get from the government.

Senator Byrd feels so keenly about the issue that he has voluntecred to be the first opposition witness in the hearings be-

The ceremony was performed * at the Tobyhanna Methodist Church by Rev. Donald Nowers,

The church was decorated with WSCS Gather snapdragons, carnations and snapdragons, carnations and At Parsonage ferns. Mrs. Eva Wiley furnished suitable nuptial music while Miss Nancy Knecht, of Bethlehem, niece of the bridegroom, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over satin with long sleeves, scalloped Peter Pan collar and full skirt with a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle was trimmed with lace and draped from a colonial bonnet. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid and streamers.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. William Baker, of Tobyhanna, sister of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Boyer law of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Glynn, of Scranton, a niece of the bride,

The matron-of-honor wore a blue strapless gown of lace and net over taffeta with a lace jacket and matching headpiece. She carried red and yellow roses in colonial style. The bridesmaids' gowns were of dusty brown made identical with that of the matronof-honor and matching headeces and carried red roses.

Richard Parker, of Cresco, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Carl Altemose, of Saylorsburg, and Harry Smith, of Tobyhanna, nephews of the bridegroom.

The mothers of the bride and Jackson PTA bridegroom both wore navy blue taffeta dresses with blue accessories and orchid corsages.

After a reception at Quick's hotel, Tobyhanna, the newly wedded couple left on a trip to points in upper New York state. They will make their home with the bridegroom's mother.

Stroud Community Club Is Given Talk On Education

The Stroud Community Club met at the Wyckoff recreation room last Thursday night with Mrs. Hazel West, the president, in charge. The discussions included education in the public schools and need for women training for Civil Defense. Miss Barbara Transue sang "Estralita," "Romance," "Run Mary Run," "The House That Jack Billt" and "Italian Street Song," accompanied by Miss

Roger Dunning, principal of Ramsey School, was guest speaker with "What do you want for your children-in education" as his subject. He explained the aims of modern education and how this progressive method fulfills parents' desire to educate. children along the lines of their best abilities plus the knowledge of their responsibilities as good citizens in this world of today. Mr. Dunning answered questions regarding his topic.

Mrs. Catherine Miller discussed the need for women in Civil Defense, explaining that Monroe County is now considered a critical area. Mrs. Miller said that women are needed in all fields of Civil Defense and lack of specific training would not prevent any woman from giving her services to this vital organization. Recruiting is now going on and members were invited to enlist.

Mrs. West announced that the following committee had been appointed for the rummage sale which is scheduled to be held on March 24 and 25; Mrs. Budd VanHorn, chairman; Mrs. Oliver Wilson, Mrs. Michael Kostrina, Mrs. Frederick Feiler. Members were urged to gather their rummage to make this sale a success,

Brownie Troop Sleighride And Meet At Party

Brownie Troop, No. 31, enjoyed a sleighriding party on Tuesday, Feb. 15. After an hour of snow fun, they returned to the home of Mrs. Helen Shaffer, 126 Ridgeway St., East Stroudsburg. where they held their Brownie birthday and Valentine party.

Mrs. Vida McElwain presented their Brownie puppet and the girls gave their birthday pennies to the Juliette Lowe fund. Valentines were exchanged and cocoa and cup cakes were served at a table decorated with candles too long," the song says. Just betonsville, parish house, 7:30 p,m. tween us, I've never thought so-W. C. T. U., E. Stbg. Meth. and neither has the person who's tried to rouse me in time for work. But whatever the case, nightwear gets shorter and shorter until it's become a Short, Short Story com plete on one sheet. The latest of these shorties by Katz are on display now in our lingerie department, and thereby hangs a tail. A

Katz Nite Shorts are in two styles. There is the bloomer type that has a very brief brief and top that resembles a dainty infant dress. These come in cool, delicious shades of mint . . . yellow . . . pink . . . and blue at $2.98. Then there are the Bermuda shorts . . . not quite so revealing, and so, more flattering to the great majority. More practical too, we think, because they are made of broadcloth and are so well tailored you could even wear them daytimes at home . . . or use the longtailed short as a blouse with your dungarees and pedal pushers. These also are $2.98-probably the most versatile buy for that money in our store today.

Now about those Bermuda nite shorts. They're of broadcloth and combine two colors. There's a light blue shirt with a deeper blue short . . . a summery sea-and-sky contrast. There's a pink shirt with a charcoal short—a bit more sophisticated to my eyes. There's a mint green combined with a darker green, as crisp looking as a fresh slice of cucumber against a parsley sprig. And there's a pink blouse with rosy red shorts-like strawberry ice cream doused with cherry syrup. Sundae . . . Monday . . . or always, these are good enough to cat, night and day.

Batiste shortie sets in small, medium, and large at $3.98 are also delectable . . . and while it may still be chilly outside it does one good to remember that there's aiways another spring, and this one is about ready to spring from around the corner.

If you prefer a gown to shorts, you'll wish to include in your vacation planning the Super-Suave gowns of rayon acetate by Lorraine at $3.98 and $4.98, in small, medium and large, covering a size range of 32 to 42. The colors are prettier than a rainbow , mint, blue, and yellow. The honey selected is of peacock-a deep blue that lights me up like a neon sign. Some colors will do that for even the plainest of us, you know . . and I'm sure that in this line s one that will work magic for you too, pretty as you may already be

For the pajama girl, there are some new broadcloths of natural shade with design in either red or green. These are Oriental in styling. The duster is $5.98; the pajamas $4.98. And for those in the Tommie Robe mood there are some by Kaylon of Criskay, the polished cotton that resembles cracked ice and washes like a dream with no need for ironing. These are $8.98.

Oh, our lingerie department has dreamy fancies for you whatever your preference blanket appraisak I can only say that the merchandise is far too beautiful to keep under cover,

Tom Spillane was the East the second round, 19-4. Stroudsburg State Teachers College basketball player who scored the 100th point against Montclair leading by a 98-80 score when an 11-7 edge in the last stanza, Spillane, only recently admitted to the game, came through with the field goal that made the century mark a reality. John Ryan, six-foot, five inch Panzer center, is a carbon copy of Bill Coleman early in the season.

George Condrick, big right handed pitcher from Tannersville, has returned two unsigned contracts to Omaha, of the American Association. George, who received his start in professional baseball with the Stroudsburg Poconos, then a member of the now defunct class "D" North Atlantic League, is a member of the St. Louis Cardinals' farm system. Condrick is working out almost daily in the Pocono High School gymnasium.

The basketball situation at Per Argyl is black right now, but Coach Ed "Jake" Palmer, likeable mentor of the green and white quintet, has hopes for the future A total of 475 boys turned out for Biddy Basketball this season when the program expected t draw only 25. The Green and White Association, an organization comparable to the Varsity "E" and Varsity "S" Clubs, has been formed and the communit is now talking basketball for the first time in years.

Palmer, who learned his basket hall as center on the East Strouds burg State Teachers College quin tet, sees his future strength in sixth and seventh grades right now. Several ESSTC students play their final home game and sat behind the Pen Argyl bench next to last basketball contest of trying to cheer Palmer to victory on Tuesday-but it wasn't enough.

Palmerton's squashing 98-53 Lehigh Valley League basketball victory over Stroudsburg on Tuesday night enabled the Bombers to equal the school's record of 21 straight wins and it also took some of the sting out of the same team's close 39-32 verdict over the Mountaineers during the first half of the current campaign. Coach Win Evans allowed his regulars to play virtually the entire distance, with only one substitute seeing brief action. I guess you could call it some sort of revenge.

Bill Pensyl, East Stroudsburg High's top point producer, may return to the lineup against Hellertown next Tuesday. Pensyl has missed the last four contests because of a sprain-fracture of the left ankle. The injury occurred in the last 18 seconds of the Wilson Borough encounter. The last time Pocono High defeated Barrett, that is prior to Tuesday, was in 1948 when Horace Johnson, now an Army lieutenant in Korea, and Jimmy Werkheiser, principal of the Jackson Township School, were the mainstays of the squad.

German Leads ESSTC To Upset Verdict Over Panzer, 88-81

Warriors Win Fourth Straight Battle

AN UNDERDOG East Stroudsburg State Teachers College basketball squad surged from behind early in the second half to the pleasure of more than 600 people last night and finished with an 88-81 verdict over a tournament minded Panzer contingent. The game was played on the Normal Hill court.

Tireless Charley German, of Whitehall High fame, put on one of the most brilliant individual performances in the history of basketball at ESSTC when he scored 38 points and captured 22 rebounds to pace the lightly regarded Warriors to victory. German's 33 points were only four short of the school record held by "Pistol Pete" Pasko, back in the early

The win, number six in 11 outings, was the biggest of the season end of the first quarter, 29-23, but succumbed to Panzer's height advantage in the second stanza to trail at halftime, 50-47. The visiting maroon and white clad quintet had the better of the second round,

735 Main St. Ph. 1711 Stroudsburg State Athletic Commission

HARRISBURG. Feb. 16 (A)-Sleepy Jim Crowley, one of the immortal four horsemen of Notre Dame and a nationally known former football coach, today was named chairman of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission

Gov. George M. Leader, first Democratic head of the Commonwealth in 20 years, said Crowley's appointment was his first step in cleaning up boxing in Pennsylvania. The governor only yesterday fired a three-man Republican commission, effective next Monday.

"I feel deeply the responsibility I have to Pennsylvania for the conduct of athletic events," Leader said. "I am not so much interested in the alleged instances of misconduct in the past as I am in making certain that from now on in this state boxing will be the healthy clean sport it should be."

Crowley, in accepting the twoyear appointment at $7,500 a year, said, "I welcome the challenge in my appointment and I am grateful for the confidence placed in me by Gov. Leader.

"This is a full time assignment so far as I am concerned and I know the other members of the commission will share this situa-tion. 16 Handicapped Persons Rehabilitated Into Jobs In Monroe County During 1954 year after they received physical tutor. and vocational retraining services Medical, psychiatric, surgical,

Referring to the 3,011 handicapped persons rehabilitated into employment during 1954, John R. Torquato, state secretary of labor and industry, said, "the most significant conclusion to be made from a survey of the various jobs in which these men and women were placed is that a wide range of training and skills were represented."

gether with hospitalization was provided for another 26 per cent; the bureau, their weekly earnings were estimated at $7 per person, Torquato said. After rehabilitation their income averaged $43 a week per person. This represents an increase of more than 500 per cent over an estimated total earnings of the group before they received vocational rehabilitation.

Following their preparation for for employment, handicapped throughout the State were placed in gainful jobs including 440 in the bureau's Wilkes-Barre District office, according to Tom E. Williams district manager.

Williams disclosed that the number of handicapped placed in gainful jobs throughout his district were: Bradford 17, Columbia 28 -Lackawanna 114, Luzerne 226, Monroe 16, Montour 3, Pike 3, Sullivan 1, Susquehanna 19, Wayne 8 and Wyoming 5.

Pinpointing the wide selection of jobs in which the handicapped were placed, Torquato said that 13 per cent of the entire group were placed in skilled occupations, such as watchmakers, jewelers and automobile mechanics; 20 per cent clerical occupations including stenographers, secretaries, bookkeeping and general office help; 18 per cent in semi-skilled jobs; 19 per cent in service occupations; ter per cent in unskilled jobs; seven percent in professional or semi professional occupations such as teachers, engineers, accountants, and draftsmen, and the remaining 13 per cent in managerial, sales agricultural or family workers.

As part of their program these disabled persons were provided with counseling and guidance, and where needed, physical restoration and prosthetic appliances. Some type of vocational training was provided for 25 per cent of the 3,011 persons. Of the 25-per cent 239 were trained in business colleges, 156 in private trade schools, 140 in colleges or universities, 107 in public vocational schools, 16 in correspondence schools, 27 in a

The entire cost of the complete plumbing package, including all fixtures, comes to approximately $300, which is part of the $1,000 material cost for the second stage. In stage 3 the house is completely finished on the inside, including insulation, a heating sys tem, fireplace and chimney, Total material cost for stage 3 is also $1,000, making a total cost for the completely winterized two-orthree-bedroom home of only $3,800. Merle Stevenson's Pocono Properties has appraised the completed prototype at $12,000.

A description of the house and the many possible ways in which it can be developed will be covered in Popular Mechanics Magazine in a series of four articles beginning with the March issue. A book entitled "Popular Mechanics Pre-Cut House You Can Assemble Yourself" by Richard Dempewolff will contain some 400 photographs and drawings and complete directions for erection and development of the shell. Ten sheets of blueprints will also aid the prospective "Do-It-Yourself" house builder to erect the home single handed or with minimum help. The prototype house in Henryville, in the completely winterized version, is expected to be opened for public inspection at a date to be announced tater in the spring.

Girls' Names To Be Used To Identify Storms

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (P-The Weather Bureau has announced that it would use girl's names again this year to identify East Coast hurricanes. The grimness of some of last year's hurricanes brought occasional public protests against the use of girl's names to designate the disaster winds. But the Weather Bureau said it will continue to use such names because in the complicated communications system for tracking and giving out warnings of the storms, it needs "short, easily pro-
